CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY SCHOOLS TRAIN MANY CADRES

Peiping, 24 July (Hsin-hua) -- Throughout China the excellent cadres trained by the party schools are already becoming the nucleus of the workers engaged in the rebuilding of China.

Since their establishment in September 1949, the party schools of the Northeast Bureau of the Central Committee, CCP, have had five regular and two short-term training classes, graduating 1922 students. At present, more than 900 students are studying in these schools. More than 100 of the 1952 fourth-term graduates were assigned to the Northeast Department of Commerce and have already become the nucleus of this department. Because these cadres received such excellent training in the party schools, they are well able to handle business matters although they have had no previous experience. All the graduates of the party schools of the Northeast Bureau passed the policy examinations given in June 1953 by the Northeast Department of Commerce. Many of the outstanding students in the study of theory are now acting as theory instructors or assistants in the sections to which they have been assigned.

Since the liberation, the party schools in the Central-South Administrative Area have trained 150,000 cadres, of whom, 3,000 were cadres of hsien level and above. Since graduation, many of these cadres have been singled out for their exemplary work. For example, 13 of the 30 cadres sent by the Kiangsi Hsin-k'an Hsien Party Committee to the Kiangsi party schools have been acclaimed as model workers.

Twenty-seven percent of the 2,200 cadres trained by the Northwest Bureau of the Central Committee, CCP, have already been assigned to economic construction work.

The Southwest Bureau of the Central Committee, CCP, has trained more than 1,000 middle and lower level cadres in the party schools in the past 3 years.

In 1953, the party schools of North Kiangsu and South Kiangsu were merged. More than 9,500 cadres were trained in these party schools in the past 4 years and more than 1,300 students participated in the Three-Anti and Five-Anti Movements during the last year. Recently, more than 800 students in the Kiangsu provincial party schools participated in the universal suffrage movement. Recently, East China Bureau of the Central Committee, CCP, sent more than 200 cadres of hsien level and above to the East China Bureau party schools for 6 months of indoctrination. These cadres are studying Chapters 9-12 of History of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union /Bolshevik Short Course/, parts of the works of Stalin and Lenin concerned with the socialist economic construction, and Mao Tse-tung's On Practice and On Contradiction. The curriculum also includes reports on national economic construction given by party and government officials.
